<http://www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk/ism/>

The museum is located on Liverpool's Albert Dock, which is a World Heritage Site with the largest group of grade 1 listed buildings in the UK. Tate Britain art gallery, The Beatles Story museum, and the Maritime Maritime Museum, which is also home to the International Slavery Museum, can all be found around the dockside. For more information on attractions and facilities, see: <http://www.albertdock.com>

Travel

The International Slavery Museum is located at Albert Dock, near to the centre of Liverpool. Liverpool is easily accessed via rail and road links. The city has an airport and is about four hours by car, or by train, from London airports.

For detailed instructions about how to get to the Museum, including maps, please use this link: <http://www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk/ism/visit/>

Parking

Pay & display parking is available on Albert Dock and costs approximately £15 per 24 hours. Alternatively, if you are staying overnight, contact your hotel for information about parking.

Catering

Delegates who have paid for the full conference will receive an evening meal on Wednesday 29 June and the Conference Dinner on the evening of Thursday 30 June. Lunch will be provided for delegates on Thursday 30 June and Friday 1 July. Day delegates on Wednesday will receive an evening meal. Day delegates on Thursday and Friday will receive lunch, but must pay an additional charge for the Conference Dinner.

Please tell us when you register for the conference if you are vegetarian or vegan or if you have any other special dietary requirements, such as allergies.

Please note that lunch is not provided for delegates on Wednesday 29 June. If you would like to buy your own food for lunch at the museum, there is a café and a restaurant on site. In addition, there are many cafés and restaurants located on and around the Albert Dock.

Accommodation

Accommodation is not included in the conference fees for full or day delegates. If you require accommodation during the conference there are many options. The Society for Caribbean Studies has arranged a group discount rate with the Holiday Inn Express, located about ten minutes walk from the conference venue. If you choose to book your accommodation with the Holiday Inn, quote the reference CAR to receive Bed and Breakfast for £70 per room. Please contact the hotel for further information. We have also arranged preferential rates for delegates with the Crowne Plaza and Hilton (see below).
